Garret Anderson, Jeff Francoeur, Derek Lowe, Brian McCann, Peter Moylan, David Ross and Javier Vazquez to provide Atlanta-area children with an unforgettable day at the ballpark

Atlanta, Ga., Wednesday, May 20, 2009 — Prior to today's game at Turner Field in Atlanta, Braves players Garret Anderson, Jeff Francoeur, Derek Lowe, Brian McCann, Peter Moylan, David Ross and Javier Vazquez will provide everlasting memories to 40 children from the Charles R. Drew Charter School and the Gresham Park Baseball and Softball Association, as the Major League Baseball Players Trust's "Buses for Baseball" program motors into Atlanta.

Courtesy of the players' charitable foundation, the children will receive round-trip transportation to the game, meet the players, and receive free tickets, food, beverages and souvenirs. "Buses for Baseball" will provide many of the children with their first chance to attend a Major League Baseball game.

The Charles R. Drew Charter School is Atlanta's first public charter school providing the inner city community with quality and safe education.

This season, "Buses for Baseball", a program administered by the Players Trust and underwritten by Majestic Athletic, a division of VF Imagewear, Inc., will provide transportation and personal greetings for more than 1,500 underprivileged children attending Major League Baseball games as invited guests of their big league heroes.

The Players Trust enjoys support from the Atlanta Braves organization and First Student Transportation in providing this unique, up close and personal opportunity to share the thrill of Major League Baseball with those less fortunate.

About the Major League Baseball Players Trust

The members of the Major League Baseball Players Association created the Players Trust, a 501(c)(3) charitable foundation, to provide resources of caring to those in need by volunteering in causes close to their hearts and encouraging others to do the same. The foundation became the first of its kind in professional sports established and administered by the players. For additional information, please visit www.MLBPLAYERS.com.
